

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION LENTEN MISSION

got hope?

In God?

Do you need it?

Do you want it?

Why?

What exactly is it anyway?

Will it make you happy?

Will it get you out of bed in the morning?

(Do you want to get out of bed in the morning?)

How do you get more of it?

Or lose what you have?

Can you have too much?

How does it relate to faith?

And Love?

got hope?

Join us for our Lenten mission and experience three talks on hope from Fr. Charles Shonk, OP that will encourage and inspire you. At least, that's the hope.

March 4, 5 & 6
at 7 p.m.
in the Church

All are welcome!

"For in hope we were saved. Now hope that sees for itself is not hope. For who hopes for what one sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait with endurance." - Romans, 8:24-25

A native of Lancaster, OH, Fr. Charles Shonk, OP is a graduate of Columbus' own St. Charles Preparatory School and nearby Denison University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in Philosophy and Classical Languages. He entered the Dominican Community in 2007 to begin his formation, was ordained a priest of the Eastern Province in Washington, DC in 2015, and began his ministry at St. Patrick Church in Columbus in June 2016. Beyond his parish, Fr. Charles teaches a scripture course at the Pontifical College Josephinum and serves as the spiritual advisor for a local Third Order Lay Carmelite Community. He is frequently heard on St. Gabriel Radio (AM820) on the "Dominican Dimension" program and has been interviewed on EWTN's "Life on the Rock."
