SCHEDULING MASS INTENTIONS

One of the greatest acts of charity is to pray for the living and the dead (a spiritual work of mercy). The greatest and most powerful prayer we have is the Mass since the fruits of the Mass are the very fruits of Jesus' redemption. Mass stipends (offerings) are $10.00 each with only one intention per Mass. Mass intentions are scheduled by calling the parish office at (614) 267-9241, emailing icoffice@iccols.org, or mailing your request to the parish office. We will do our best to honor the dates and times requested, but no day/time can be guaranteed. Currently, we are scheduling Mass intentions from January through June 2025.

CONTRIBUTORS TO THE SANCTUARY LAMPS

We also thank the children in our School Age Child Care program who made Christmas ornaments to go with the cookie plates.

The Festival of Lessons and Carols is a service of Scripture and song with its tradition starting at King's College in Cambridge, England. In 1918 Eric Milner-White, who was an army chaplain during the First World War, was appointed the Dean of Kings College. As with many tragedies, the church, regardless of denomination, tends to suffer a great deal. To help bring people back into the church, Milner-White put together a Festival of Lessons and Carols to provide a more "imaginative" way of worship. Traditionally, this service was done on Christmas Eve, usually with nine lessons. However, in this Advent Lessons and Carols, we will hear from five Scripture lessons which tell of the Fall of Adam, the promise of a Messiah, the Incarnation, taking us to right before the birth of Christ. Each lesson will be followed by a carol or other song that reflects the lesson's message and a brief prayer. Please join the Choirs of Immaculate Conception and St. Charles Preparatory Men's Choir as they lead us in this night of song prayer and reflection. All are welcome!

SOCIAL CONCERNS

YWCA FAMILY SHELTER DINNER – DECEMBER 20

Immaculate Conception is providing dinner for the YWCA Family Shelter Friday, December 20. Food donations are needed. Volunteers are also needed to help in the preparation and boxing of meals at the Family Center. For more information, or to sign up for food donations or time, go to iccols.org, Quick Links, YWCA Shelter Dinner Sign-up.

SVP ST. VINCENT DE PAUL 5TH SUNDAY COLLECTION

December 28/29 is the 5th Sunday collection when parishioners are asked to donate to the IC St. Vincent de Paul Conference so our IC Vincentians can help families in crises. Sometimes people need food; but more often now they need help with rent, and utilities. Our Vincentians make home visits to assess the needs of an individual or family and help if appropriate and resources are available. The demand has been ongoing, and resources are low. Donations can be made at any time by using the St. Vincent envelope in your packet, by putting your clearly marked gift in any envelope and place it in the offertory collection or one of the candle boxes. You may also mail it to the parish office or donate online at iccols.org, Give Now, One-Time or Recurring, Fund, then St. Vincent de Paul. Thank you for your generosity.

HAS YOUR FAMILY SIGNED UP TO CARRY UP THE OFFERTORY GIFTS DURING THIS HOLY SEASON?

Parishioners are invited to carry up the offertory gifts at weekend and Christmas Masses. There are still Masses available on Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, The Feast of the Holy Family, the Solemnity of Mary, and the Epiphany. To sign up, call the parish office or go to iccols.org>Parish Life>Presentation of the Gifts.

Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you we are filled with joy.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION IS LAUNCHING ITS OWN SPRINGS OF LOVE TEAM!

Springs of Love creates communities of support for those touched by fostering, kinship care and adoption. It also encourages, educates and equips Catholics to discern and live out the call to foster and adopt. The I.C. Springs of Love team hopes to offer support to foster, kinship, & adoptive families through educational programming, small groups, and parish care teams. We hope that Springs of Love will be a place for support and encouragement. One of the most powerful ways that the Church can support vulnerable children in foster care is by offering practical faith-based support to families through Springs of Love. Please contact Stephanie Baird at sksgcc@yahoo.com if you know of a family who could use support or if you would like to help.

Gospel

John the Baptist was a great man, and people thought he might be God. He told them that a greater man was coming. They were waiting for Jesus!

FAITH FORMATION

Immaculate Conception Church

December 15, 2024

In the Gospel this weekend, John the Baptist calls the people to prepare and straighten up their own lives. He exhorts the crowds to share their excess possessions, to act honestly and uprightly, and to be content with what the Lord has given them. He says that he is preparing these people for the arrival of the Christ, who will baptize with fire, will gather the good into the Kingdom of Heaven, and consign the wicked to hell. This certainly seems like a dire set of warnings and an ultimately exacting sort of eternal inspection, but if we understand what it means to prepare for guests, and read this passage in the light of the Advent season, we can see it from a bit of a different standpoint.

John calls the crowds to prepare their lives and hearts, not just because of moral obligation, in conformity to a code of right conduct. Rather, he calls them to prepare so that they might be capable of receiving the love of their immanent visitor. The baptism of fire that the Christ will bring, we know, is the act of love by which Jesus unites souls with Himself, sharing the burning charity that is His divine life. He desires to bring every soul into the house of His Father, and will only send away those who are not ready to meet Him in love, who choose to reject His friendship.

We, like John's disciples, are called to change what is out of order, to give up our sins, to live honestly and uprightly, to give what we do not need to those who are afflicted, in short, to straighten ourselves up. Of course, we don't do this simply to pass inspection. We prepare our souls because we wish to show love to Christ our guest, soon to arrive at Christmas, and we want to be ready for a peaceful and joyful visit with Him. We prepare our souls so that when He comes to us with the gifts of eternal life and love, nothing can distract us from receiving them with our whole heart.

Discover how Mary guides us through Advent

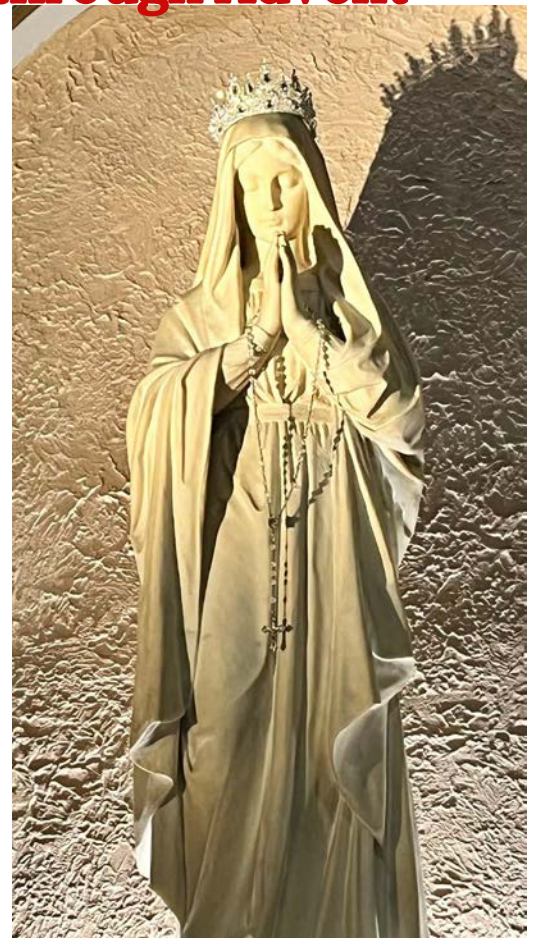

As we walk through Advent, a season steeped in expectation and holy longing, we find no better companion than Mary, the Mother of God. She who carried the Light of the World beneath her heart understands better than anyone the profound meaning of Advent waiting. During December, the Church gives us two significant Marian feasts - the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception and the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe - that enrich our understanding of how to prepare for Christ's coming.

A Heart Prepared from the Beginning

The season of Advent barely begins before we celebrate the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception on December 8th. This feast reveals God's remarkable preparation for the coming of His Son. From the first moment of her existence, Mary was preserved from original sin, making her the perfect vessel to carry the Word made flesh. As the angel would later proclaim, she was "full of grace" - not by her own merit, but by God's anticipatory action.

This profound mystery teaches us something essential about Advent preparation: God always takes the initiative. Just as He prepared Mary from the beginning for her unique role, He continues to prepare our hearts to receive Christ. The grace we need for our Advent journey is already being offered. Like Mary, our role is to say "yes" to this divine preparation.

They may say you have won a prize, and they need your financial information to pay a processing fee so they can send it to you. - OR - They may message you posing as Reverend Matthew Hoover at Immaculate Conception, asking "If you have a moment I have a request I need you to handle discreetly. I am currently busy in a prayer session; no calls, so just reply to my email." This is a definite scam which you should delete immediately. Fr. Matt will never make a request like this. If you have any doubts, please call the parish office to confirm if a request is legitimate.
